

What's the mission of Incarnate Institute?

- ❖ We develop and present retreats and conferences that combine Scripture, Tradition, and living example into a dynamic mix that promotes healing, spiritual growth and active mission in the Church.
- ❖ We translate the message of the New Evangelization and of the Theology of the Body so we can better understand our human makeup and call to discipleship.

Testimonial:

“There is a wonderful opportunity called, Spirit Alive. It's a time to discover and develop one's relationship with the Holy Spirit and charisms. The content of Spirit Alive has been reviewed by Fr. Francis Sullivan, S.J., an international expert on charisms, and approved by the Archdiocese

I would like to invite you to open yourselves to the action of the Holy Spirit, who transforms our life, to be pieces of the great mosaic of holiness that God is creating in history, so that the Face of Christ will shine in the fullness of its brilliance. Pope Benedict, April 13, 2011

Living a new relationship with Jesus, Discovering your unique spiritual gifts

By Incarnate Institute

What is

Spirit Alive?

- ❖ It's a weekly experience that guides you to cultivate a living relationship with Jesus through prayer, discernment, and inner healing.
- ❖ It's a framework that provides you with tools to excavate your own personal profile of spiritual gifts so you can impact your job, life, family, and ministry with the power of the Holy Spirit.
- ❖ Meet online from the comfort of your home to grow in your faith and meet Catholics from all over the world in small group.

Mary Gannon Kaufmann, M.A., M.S., teaches internationally on the role of the laity, and on Theology of the Body. She has taught at the parish and diocesan levels with Lay Formation, Vocations, Stewardship and Family Life. She holds a Masters in Theology from Loras College and a Certificate in Spiritual Direction/Directing Retreats from Creighton University in Omaha, NE. In addition, she possesses a Masters in Nutrition from the University of Minnesota. She lives in Cedar Rapids, IA with her husband, John and six children.

“Mary Kaufmann is an engaging speaker who draws upon her lifelong love of Christ and the Church, her experiences of marriage and motherhood, her theological studies, and a variety of household items and personal mementos in her presentations. And it all works...-memorably so!” Fr Michael Fones, O.P., Co-Director of the Catherine of Siena Institute.
